

Going the 'final mile' in healthcare delivery in developing countries

We buy and maintain motorcycles.
Healthcare workers use them.
Disadvantaged people benefit.

A 10 euro donation helps 10,000 people.
(by funding 10 visits to villages with 1000 people each.)

Motorcycle Outreach is a charitable organisation funding effective healthcare delivery in remote areas of developing countries.

Effective healthcare in rural areas depends on transport.

Further information at: www.motorcycleoutreach.org
UK Registered Charity 1114675